Recommended: any stream + a strong portfolio

Aisha, your quiz shows a real strength in creativity backed by a solid business sense, which makes paths like Product/UX Design, Chartered Accountancy, and Psychology & Counseling genuinely worth exploring — each one draws on your strengths in a different way. Check out what people in these fields actually do day to day and notice which one makes you curious to learn more. Remember, a human counselor reviews your report too, so treat these as starting points and bring your questions to them.
